Penn Libraries invites you to join us

Thursday, April 25, 2013 5:30 PM for the

Beitler Collection Distinguished Lecture
President Jefferson, Chief Justice Marshall and the Treason Trial of Aaron Burr
R. Kent Newmyer, University of Connecticut Law School

Drawing on his latest book, The Treason Trial of Aaron Burr, distinguished historian R. Kent Newmyer (University of Connecticut Law School) will take us inside one of the most dramatic and important criminal trials in American history. The explosive mix of personality, politics, and law imbedded in this battle of titans makes for edge-of-your-seat storytelling and provides fascinating insight into the origins of America’s political and legal systems. A book signing and reception follow the lecture.

Special Collections Center, Class of 1978 Pavilion
Van Pelt-Dietrich Library, 3420 Walnut Street, sixth floor, Philadelphia, PA

For more information and registration:
sceti.library.upenn.edu/dreyfus/outreach_exhibitions_events.cfm