

AMERICA IN EUROPE

A PAPER PUBLISHED IN THE INTEREST OF GOOD FELLOWSHIP AMONG ALL NATIONS.

All communications to be addressed to the AMERICA IN EUROPE COMPANY, FRANKFURT MAIN, Postfach 55

MONDAY, AUGUST 5, 1918

PRICE: GERMANY 10 Pfg.
OTHER COUNTRIES 20 Pfg.

LLOYD GEORGE, ADDRESSING THE SAMMIES:

"My boy, are you able to appreciate the high honor that you are permitted to die for England?"

NEWS FROM AMERICA.

Symptoms of Imminent Awakening.

Even the Chicago "Daily Tribune" takes exception to English censoring of American Press Dispatches.

Since the United States are taking an active part in the war and allow their young men to spill their blood on European soil for first and last European causes, our countrymen over in America begin to realize more and more that it won't do to look at the war-situation exclusively with English eyes. As long as America's interest in the war was more or less of a theoretical or monetary character it was not deemed necessary to probe the veracity of every piece of news received via England, but since our own blood is flowing even those among us who still adhere to the traditional friendship between England and America—the blood-is-

WHAT ARE YOU FIGHTING FOR, SAMMY?

For the Pound and the Dollar, if you want to know. Of course, you aren't told so. What they tell you in and out of season is that you are fighting for the choicest things in all the world, for the highest ideas and the loftiest ideals. You are to fight the fighting spirit of Germany, you have to make war against war, and you have been militarized in order to crush militarism. You are called to make the world safe for democracy, for culture, for brotherly love, and for — teetotalism.

But —

They never tell you that all these things are nothing but camouflage, nothing but a hiding screen for the real thing you are fighting for. And this real thing is the Sacred Pound and the Almighty Dollar!

This is what you are fighting for!

This is what all the Allies are fighting for!

This is what the whole war is fought for!

This is what for floods of blood, and torrents of tears must flow and eyes must dim, and hearts must break.

This war is not the Battle of the Lord. It is the Armageddon of the Golden Calf. And yet, strange to say, it is not fought by the owners of the aforesaid calf. It is not fought by the happy possessors of the gold producing shares and bonds nor by the gamblers in Wall Street and Threadneedle Street.

Oh no!

WAR NEWS.

The fifth Anniversary of the War.

A sad anniversary! — Ever since the unnatural alliance between the old foes, England and Russia, was concluded, the world knew that an European war was inevitable. England's historical policy, always to crush her most dangerous commercial rivals (Spain, Holland, Denmark, France), demanded the crushing of Germany. Russia wanted the control of the Balkan-States and the Dardanelles, and France was craving for "Revanche" and incidentally for Alsace-Lorraine and, if possible, for the left side of the Rhine. The Suchomlinow trial and the official documents found in Brussels have proven the fact that the Entente intended to annihilate Germany.

Germany's doom seemed to be sure. But the devilish plot of the Entente did not succeed and never will succeed!